

Welcome to Waling Borgkot

This restaurant is dedicated to celebrating Balinese cuisine and offers a selection of Balinese specialties, with an emphasis on typical North Bali dishes. The vast majority of ingredients come from our own vegetable and spice gardens which you can visit on the complimentary Plantation Walk every morning. The cuisine of North Bali relies heavily on the abundance of vegetables which are typically blanched, preserving their taste as well as their antioxidants and is naturally quite healthy. There are many different Sambals to provide a bit of spice and twist to the dishes - some of these are very spicy but most have very subtle flavors. The degree of spiciness is indicated on the menu.

In Bali, meals are typically enjoyed with family or a group of friends and consist of a number of dishes which are shared. We would therefore, encourage you to order a few dishes for your party, together with rice or fries and a selection of Sambals. These will all be served together in small pots while each of you will have individual plates so that you can all try a bit of everything. Desserts can be ordered separately. To facilitate matters, we offer a North Bali Sampler which consists of some of our own favorites. Our waiters will be very happy to assist you in selecting your meal and advising you on the dishes.

We hope you will enjoy with our authentic Balinese meal!
